NORTHWEST GROCERY ASSOCIATION CART RETRIEVAL SERVICE

Local governments have had their fill of shopping carts littering neighborhoods and transit centers. A part-time cart cowboy with a truck and a stack of bungee cords is no longer good enough.

The NWGA Cart Retrieval Service provides indemnity from local ordinances that fine retailers for abandoned shopping carts and currently services 110 stores in the Portland Metro Area, Salem and Woodburn.

NORTHWEST GROCERY ASSOCIATION CART RETRIEVAL SERVICE

The NWGA Service provides:

- A “safe harbor” for retailers with local shopping cart ordinances (as provided by Senate Bill 645, 2007)
- Protection from civil penalties associated with local shopping cart ordinances (Penalties can reach $50 per cart, per occurrence)
- 24/7/365 Live-operator, toll-free phone number to report abandoned carts (888-55-CARTS)
- Live dispatch of reported carts to cart retrieval service
- Guaranteed pick-up of reported carts within 72 hours
- Custom trucks and equipment for secure retrieval –
No bungi cords and old pick-up trucks
- Fully licensed and insured cart retrieval service (workers comp, unemployment insurance, general liability and all local and state business licenses and payroll taxes)
