They ensure the accuracy of crime reporting to the FBI and Oregon through the National Incident-Based Reporting System (NIBRS) by reviewing all officer reports, which supports reliable crime statistics for internal use and public transparency. # SCHOOL RESOURCE OFFICERS

During the school year, the two School Resource Officers (SROs) make it a priority to provide a safe and secure environment for staff and students in the various Tualatin schools to help promote a safe, educational environment. They conduct classroom presentations that focus on laws and familiarization with the juvenile justice system. The SROs are responsible for investigating child abuse cases, to include DHS referrals, and investigate local and state laws within the schools, when applicable. The SROs devote their summers to the Tualatin Police H.E.R.O.E.S. Summer Camp, giving students the opportunity to attend a positive, educationally focused summer camp at a minimal cost. The Tualatin Police H.E.R.O.E.S. Summer Camp also promotes the values of the Tigard Tualatin School District with being responsible, respectful and safe.

K9 ONYX

K9 Onyx, a black Labrador Retriever, is Tualatin Police Department's therapy/wellness dog. He was donated to the Department by a local non-profit, Working Dogs Oregon. He is trained to assist with employee wellness, victim support, crisis response, and community outreach. Onyx's primary role is to be present at the Department as a resource available to officers and employees.

In addition to supporting employee wellness, Onyx is available to those who are in need of comfort and a sense of well-being, including victims and some witnesses of criminal incidents, and those who have endured emotional tragedies. Onyx is in a unique position to embody the kind of community policing that can improve trust and build connections between residents and law enforcement. Comfort dogs are specially trained to not only provide comfort, but also to be stable in unusual experiences such as large yelling crowds, tense situations, and riding in patrol cars. They play a therapeutic role and can de-escalate stressful situations while providing unconditional love and support to people.

K9 TONY

In 2024, K9 Tony sniffed 55 vehicles, 161 rooms, and 8 parcels. He located and recovered approximately 7,000 fentanyl pills, 4,392.4 grams of fentanyl powder, 486.3 grams of heroin, 176,195.49 grams of methamphetamine and 12 firearms. Tony works hard!

K9 Tony is tested and recertified annually in narcotic detection standards through the Oregon Police Canine Association.

UAS DRONE PROGRAM

Unmanned Aerial Systems (UAS), also referred to as drones, are any aircraft that do not have a human pilot on board. The Tualatin Police Department uses drones to protect the lives and property of law enforcement and the community. Drones provide officers with important information during emergency situations and criminal investigations.

Our department currently has four drone pilots, all certified through the Federal Aviation Administration (FAA) under Part 107. Our drone pilots consist of two patrol sergeants and two patrol officers. The drones we are currently flying are the DJI Matrice 30T and DJI Avata 2.

The Tualatin Police Department uses drones in a multitude of ways. Some examples include searching for missing persons, clearing buildings and cars, event overwatch, and locating a suspect who fled on foot.

SPECIAL EVENTS

Tualatin Police also participated in several local events, including Viva Tualatin, Blender Dash, the West Coast Giant Pumpkin Regatta, National Night Out and Toys in the Trunk.

GIVING

Members of the Tualatin Police Department took part in giving gifts, clothing and food to several less fortunate families during the back-to-school and holiday seasons. This was all made possible through donations from the Tualatin Community Police Foundation and generous department members, through Tualatin Police Department's Adopt-A-Family Program, and the holiday and back-to-school Shop With a Cop events.

Traffic officers were also able to pass out turkeys, instead of tickets, for the Thanksgiving holiday. This was made possible through the generous donation of turkeys from Perlo Construction.
